

THE CATHEDRAL ON BANKS OF THE WABASH RIVER

Vincennes, Indiana

Mother of churches in Indiana, this bldg. was built 1826 by Father Champomier, & stands where the first log church, built about 1732, stood. In Revolutionary War times, the formal surrender to Col. Geo. Rogers Clark of the Northwest Territory occurred in the log church. Many illustrious sons of the church are buried in the crypt beneath.
